Introduction to East Asian Traditional Dress and Korean Crafts

Presented by Dr. Jung Uk Rhee
Dongguk University, Seoul, Korea

Saturday, September 27th 2008, 9:00am-5:00pm; 206 Ingraham Hall, 1155 Observatory Dr.

This is a never offered before two part workshop!! The first half of the workshop will be a lecture that will be introducing the characteristics of East Asian traditional dress looking at the cultural features, aesthetic values and the symbolism of color while also taking a critical look at the different aspects of East Asian and Western styles. The second half will be a hands-on-workshop that will let you learn beautiful Korean knotting, used in many traditional detailing, and then traditional wrapping and decorating techniques using traditional patterns and materials.

Also, if you know anyone else that is interested, our workshop is open to the public! See Below for Registration Information!!
If paying with credit card, please register online at: www.eastasia.wisc.edu.

Final Registration Deadline:
September 13th 2008

Workshop size is very limited to provide more individualized attention. Your registration will not be processed and a space in the workshop will not be reserved for you until payment is received.
