

Center for East Asian Studies
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Graduate and Post-Graduate Funding Opportunities for Students in East Asian Studies

East Asia Fellowships through CEAS

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Ichiro & Toyoko Matsudaira Memorial Award Fund	CEAS awards one yearly fellowship covering participation in the Japan-America Student Conference. The JASC is an educational and cultural exchange program for university students (from freshmen to Ph.D. candidates) from the US and Japan. Approximately 40 students from each country spend an intense month living, traveling, and studying together with the aim of better understanding each other's cultures and societies. The locales alternate yearly in the US and Japan. Candidates submit applications directly to JASC, and submit an additional complete copy to the Center for East Asian Studies.	March	Center for East Asian Studies, Advisor 333 Ingraham Hall Phone: (608) 262-3643 Email: eas@intl-institute.wisc.edu Web: http://eastasia.wisc.edu/en/Students/MatsudairaMemFund.html Japan-American Student Conference 2 nd Floor, 606 18 th Street, N.W. Washington, DC 20006 Phone: (202) 289-4231 Fax: (202) 789-8265 Email: jascine@jasc.org Web: www.jasc.org
Chinese Language Scholarships, China Scholarship Council, People's Republic of China	The Center for East Asian Studies announces Chinese Language Scholarships provided by the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China in Taiwan. The scholarships are for the academic year and provide $NT 25,000 (NT $32.5=US $1) per month toward expenses. Successful applicants are responsible for housing costs (in Taipei), health insurance coverage and all travel	March	Center for East Asian Studies, Advisor 333 Ingraham Hall Phone: (608) 262-3643 Email: eas@intl-institute.wisc.edu Web: http://en.csc.edu.cn/Laihua/Default.aspx?cid=277

	costs. Applicants must be current UW-Madison graduate or undergraduate students in good standing (at least a 3.0 GPA). If you are scheduled to graduate, you must provide a written statement that indicates intent to enroll in a U. S. graduate program. As applicants must have sufficient Chinese language proficiency in speaking and listening to be able to satisfy basic survival needs, preference will be given to students who have completed at least one year of Chinese by May. The fellowships are only open to U.S. citizens. Questions regarding this scholarship should be directed to the Student Advisor/Coordinator at the Center for East Asian Studies.
Chinese Language Scholarships, Ministry of Education, Republic of China on Taiwan	CEAS accepts applications for two Chinese Language Fellowships sponsored by the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China on Taiwan. The awards are for approved overseas language study in Taiwan from September to August, and provide $NT 25,000 (US $725) per month toward expenses. Applicants must be current UW-Madison graduate or recent graduates, in good standing. Preference will be given to students who have completed at least one year of Chinese by May. The fellowships are open to U.S. citizens or permanent residents.	March	Center for East Asian Studies, Advisor 333 Ingraham Hall Madison, WI 53706 Phone: (608) 265-4745 Email: estudentadvising@eastasia.wisc.edu Web: http://eastasia.wisc.edu/en/Students/HuayuScholarship.html
East Asian Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Graduate Fellowships	FLAS academic year and summer graduate fellowships are funded by the U.S. Department of Education for graduate students studying East Asian area studies and languages. In the past, FLAS fellows have been chosen with varied course study from several University Schools and Departments. The Fellowships offer generous award benefits, including a stipend plus payment of all tuition and fees. Summer FLAS fellowships can be used for language study abroad, but academic year FLAS fellowships are generally used for study at UW-Madison, with the exception of dissertation research abroad. Eligibility: U.S. citizen or permanent resident, enrolled in or applying for admission to a UW-Madison graduate or professional school. For more information contact the student advisor at the Center for East Asian Studies.	February	University of Wisconsin-Madison International Institute Fellowships Office 328 Ingraham Hall 1155 Observatory Drive Madison, WI 53706 Web: www.intl-institute.wisc.edu/fellow Center for East Asian Studies, Advisor 331 Ingraham Hall Phone: (608) 265-4745 Email: estudentadvising@eastasia.wisc.edu

General East Asia Fellowships Offered through Other Institutions

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Abe Fellowships	The Abe Fellowship is designed to encourage international	September	Abe Fellowship Program

	multidisciplinary research on topics of pressing global concern. The program seeks to foster the development of a new generation of researchers who are interested in policy-relevant topics of long-range importance and who are willing to become key members of a bilateral and global research network built around such topics. It strives especially to promote a new level of intellectual cooperation between the Japanese and American academic and professional communities committed to and trained for advancing global understanding and problem solving. Terms of the Fellowship are flexible and are designed to meet the needs of researchers at different stages in their careers. The program provides Abe Fellows with a minimum of 3 and maximum of 12 months of full-time support over a 24 month period. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. or the terminal degree in their field, or have attained an equivalent level of professional experience by the date of initial activation of the fellowship.		Social Science Research Council 810 Seventh Avenue New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 377-2700 Fax: (212) 377-2727 Email: abe@ssrc.org Web: http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/abe/
Asian Cultural Council Fellowships	The Asian Cultural Council is a foundation supporting cultural exchange in the visual and performing arts between the United States and the countries of Asia. The emphasis of fellowships awarded to individuals is on artists, scholars and specialists from Asia for research, study and creative work in the United States. Some grants are also made to Americans pursuing similar activities in Asia and to educational and cultural institutions engaged in projects of special significance to Asian-American exchange. The program offers a variety of fellowships. See website for more details.	February	Asian Cultural Council 437 Madison Avenue, 37th Floor New York, New York 10022-7001 Phone: (212) 812-4300 Fax: (212) 812-4299 Email: acc@accny.org Web: http://www.asianculturalcouncil.org/
Blakemore - Freeman Fellowships for Advanced Language Study	The Blakemore Foundation grants approximately 30 fellowships yearly for advanced study of modern Chinese, Japanese and Korean. These are intended for use pursuing professional, academic, or business careers involving regular use of Asian language. The grants fund a year of advanced language study at institutions in Asia. The grants cover tuition and a stipend for related expenses, basic living costs and transportation. Eligibility includes: receipt of undergraduate degree, language ability at or near advanced level of study, ability to devote oneself to full-time language study for the duration of the grant, and U.S. citizenship.	December	The Blakemore Foundation 1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4800 Seattle, Washington 98101-3266 Phone: (206) 359-8778 Email: blakemore@perkinscoie.com Web: www.blakemorefoundation.org
East Asia and Pacific Summer Institutes for U.S. Graduate Students (EAPSI) (from NSF)	The East Asia and Pacific Summer Institutes (EAPSI) provide U.S. graduate students in science and engineering first-hand research experience in Australia, China, Japan, Korea, or Taiwan, an introduction to the science and science policy infrastructure of the respective location, and orientation to the culture and language. The primary goals of EAPSI are to introduce students to East Asia and Pacific science and engineering in the context of a research laboratory, and to initiate personal relationships that will better	November	The National Science Foundation 4201 Wilson Blvd. Arlington, VA 22230 Phone: (703) 292-5111 Email: pubs@nsf.gov Web: http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5284

	enable them to collaborate with foreign counterparts in the future. Eligibility includes being a U.S. citizen and enrolled at a U.S. institution, pursuing studies in fields of science or engineering.
East-West Center Graduate Degree Fellowships (must be enrolled in a graduate degree program at University of Hawaii)	Graduate Degree Fellowships are available to individuals interested in participating in the educational and research programs of the East-West Center while pursuing graduate degree study at the University of Hawaii. Fellowships for both Master's (24 mo.) and doctoral (48 mo.) degrees are available. Degree fellows have opportunities to participate in the Center's research projects in several areas of international study. Must be a citizen or U.S. permanent residents or citizens of countries in Asia and the Pacific including Russia. Must also apply to graduate program of the University of Hawaii. Required tests include TOEFL for non-native English speakers and the GRE or GMAT.	November	East-West Center 1601 East-West Road Honolulu, Hawaii 96848-1601 Phone: (808) 944-7735 Email: ewcuhm@eastwestcenter.org Web: www.eastwestcenter.org
Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship	Postdoctoral teaching-research fellowships in the humanities, each awarded for the one-year period, offer stipends of $45,000. While in residence at Cornell, postdoctoral fellows hold department affiliation and have limited teaching duties and the opportunity for scholarly work. Mellon Foundation postdoctoral fellowships are available in five areas of specialization.	January	Program Administrator Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships Cornell University Society for the Humanities A.D. White House 27 East Avenue, Ithaca, NY 14853-1101 Phone: (607) 255-9274 Email: humctr-mailbox@cornell.edu Web: http://www.arts.cornell.edu/sochum/mellon_post-d_fellowships.html
Stanford University Graduate Fellowships	Stanford University offers several graduate fellowships for East Asia studies, which include summer internship programs, summer grants, fellowship for study of women in Asia, travel grants, and many more.	Varies	Center for East Asian Studies 615 Crothers Way 100 Encina Commons Stanford University Stanford, CA 94305-2034 Phone: (650) 723-3362 Fax: (650) 725-3350 Web: http://ceas.stanford.edu/students/fellowships.php
Leadership in Asian Affairs Fellowship Program (National Bureau of Asian Research)	A year long, post-master's degree (e.g., MA, MBA, LLM, JD, etc.) program to help bridge the gap between scholarly research and the needs of American foreign policy with the rapidly changing China at NBR's headquarters in Seattle. Award is $30,000 as well as travel and research-related expenses. Applicants must have/be the following 1.) American Citizen or permanent resident 2.) Master's degree by time fellowship begins	January	Daniel B. Wright The National Bureau of Asian Research 1301 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 305 Washington, DC 20004-1701 Phone: (202) 347-9767 Fax: (202) 347-9766 Web: http://www.nbr.org/About/fellowsinternships.aspx

China-related Fellowships Offered through Other Institutions

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
ACLS Committee on Scholarly Communication with China Programs: American Research in the Humanities in China	This program is for scholars in the humanities to do research in the People's Republic of China. US citizens and permanent residents who have lived in the US continuously for at least three years by the application deadline are eligible to apply. This program supports individuals with the Ph.D. or equivalent to do in-depth research on China or the Chinese portion of a comparative study. Grants are offered for 4 to 12 months of continuous research in China. Applicants should demonstrate that they have fully utilized the available resources in the US and are prepared by virtue of study, training, and planning to take full advantage of an opportunity to do research in China. See website for more details.	September	Office of Fellowships and Grants American Council of Learned Societies 633 Third Avenue New York, NY 10017-6795 Email: grants@acsl.org http://www.acsl.org/programs/comps/ Web:
Chinese Cultural Research Scholarship	Chinese Culture Research Fellowship sponsored by the Ministry of Education of China for international experts in Chinese culture to carry out short-term research in China. Duration of fellowship maximum 5 months. Applicants must be non-Chinese nationals, in good health and under the age of 55. Applicants must hold professor, associate professor titles, or must have obtained doctorate degree. Applicants must hold fixed profession engaging or mainly engaging in Chinese cultural research, and have published works or papers in this field. Scholarship includes stipend, accommodations, emergency health care, and research assistance.	Three months before departure for China	China Scholarship Council No. 160 Fuxingmennei Street, Beijing 100031, P.R.China Phone: 0086-10-66413253, 66413132 Fax: 0086-10-66413255 Email: laihua@csc.edu.cn Web: www.csc.edu.cn
Chinese Government Scholarship Postgraduate; Doctoral Scholarship	Five scholarships provided by the Chinese Ministry of Education granted each year to American graduate students to study in China. Scholarship includes tuition, instructional materials, housing, medical care, and a monthly stipend paid in RMB Yuan. This scholarship is not designed to support doctoral dissertation research.	March	Official Address of China Scholarship A3 Building 2, NO. 9, Chegongzhuang Street Beijing 100044, P. R. China Phone: 0086-10-88393619 Fax: 0086-10-88393620 Email: laihua@csc.edu.cn Council http://en.csc.edu.cn/
Peking University Harvard-Yenching Graduate Fellowship	Annual Fellowships for Advanced Research in Chinese Studies. Award covers the following: tuition, monthly stipend of 2,000 renminbi, faculty adviser, access to Peking University library and computer facilities, roundtrip airfare from home city to Beijing (up to $1600). Applicant minimum requirements: U.S. citizen (exceptions may be made), doctoral student at an accredited U.S. institution, Chinese studies in the humanities or social sciences (with an emphasis on culture), sufficient level of ability in Chinese language to conduct research in China. Supporting materials required of all applicants: Completed application form, official academic transcripts of undergraduate and graduate coursework, three letters of recommendation from professors knowledgeable about the work of the	September	2 Divinity Avenue & Vanseng Hall 25 Francis Avenue Cambridge, MA 02138 Phone: (617) 495-4050 International Students Division Office of International Relations Peking University, Beijing 100871 P. R. CHINA Fax: ++86-10-6275-1240 or -1233 Web: http://www.harvard-yenching.org/fellowship/applicant, including one from applicant's PhD adviser, a detailed research proposal (no longer than 2 pages), evidence of the applicant's level of ability in Chinese language (e.g., standardized test scores; proficiency rating; letter from Chinese language instructor).

Stanford University Postdoctoral Fellowship in Chinese Studies	The Center for East Asian Studies at Stanford University is pleased to announce the establishment of two new post-doctoral positions in Chinese Studies. The post-doctoral are open to scholars in the humanities and social sciences studying any historical period. Applicants must have been awarded the Ph.D. no later than August 31, prior to the term in which he/she plans to start the post-doctoral position and may not be more than five years beyond receipt of the doctoral degree. Fellowships may be given to those who hold continuing, assistant professor-level teaching positions. Residence in the local area and participation in Center activities are required during the appointment. Each award carries a 12-month stipend of $32,000.	January	Center for East Asian Studies Bldg. 50 Main Quad Stanford University Stanford, CA 94305-2034 Phone: (650) 723-3362 Fax: (650) 725-3350 Web: http://ceas.stanford.edu/

Japan-related Fellowships

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Association for Asian Studies NEAC Japanese Studies Grants	The Northeast Asia Council (NEAC) of the Association for Asian Studies, in conjunction with the Japan-US Friendship Commission, supports a variety of grant programs in Japanese studies designed to facilitate the research of individual scholars, to improve the quality of teaching about Japan on both the college and pre-college levels, and to integrate the study of Japan into the major academic disciplines. Please note: Individual applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents, and institutional applicants must be located within the USA. Variety of grants offered including: Research Travel within the USA, Short-term Travel to Japan for Professional Purposes, Seminars on Teaching About Japan, Instructional Materials, Japan-related Speakers and Panels at National Conventions of Major Scholarly Disciplines, etc.	October (for fall/winter awards) February (for spring/summer awards)	NEAC Japan Grants Association for Asian Studies 1021 E. Huron St. Ann Arbor, MI. 48104 Phone: (734) 665-2490 Web: http://www.asian-studies.org/grants/main.htm
Japan Foundation Doctoral Fellowship	The Doctoral Fellowship is designed for doctoral students majoring in humanities and the social sciences who have completed necessary courses for a doctorate (or will complete by the time of starting a fellowship), who are eligible for submitting a doctoral dissertation, and who need to visit Japan to prepare their dissertation. Duration: 4 to 14 months. Award: Round-trip discount economy-class air ticket (PEX), living expenses (monthly 310,000 yen), various allowances, and insurance. Applicants who have been in Japan continuously for more than a year, or have conducted research in Japan for more than two	November	The Japan Foundation, New York 152 West 57th Street, 17th Floor New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 489-0299 Fax: (212) 489-0409 Email: info@jfnj.org Web: http://www.jfnj.org/months continuously in a year are excluded (in principle). Applicants must have advanced proficiency in either Japanese or English. As for doctoral candidates, applicants who are particularly promising as a future Japanologist will be given higher priority for selection.

Japan Foundation Research Fellowship	Research Fellowships are intended for scholars, researchers, and professionals who wish to conduct research in Japan for periods ranging from 2 to 12 months. Award includes round-trip discount economy-class air ticket (PEX), living expenses (monthly 370,000 yen or 430,000 yen), various allowances and insurance. All projects related substantially to Japan in the humanities and social sciences, including comparative research, are eligible. Scholars should hold an academic position in a research institution and have substantial experience in research, teaching, and writing in their respective fields of study. Applications from researchers and professionals with equivalent research or analytical experience are also eligible. Applications can be downloaded from the website.	November	The Japan Foundation, New York 152 West 57th Street, 17th Floor New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 489-0299 Fax: (212) 489-0409 Email: info@jfny.org Web: http://www.jfny.org/
Japan Foundation Short-Term Research Fellowship	The Japan Foundation Short-Term Research Fellowships give established scholars, researchers and professionals the opportunity to conduct intensive research in Japan, such as collecting data and materials, and interviewing for short-term periods, ranging from 21 to 60 days. This program is intended for projects substantially related to Japan in the fields of humanities and social sciences, including comparative research.	November	The Japan Foundation, New York 152 West 57th Street, 17th Floor New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 489-0299 Fax (212) 489-0409 Email: info@jfny.org Web: http://www.jfny.org/
Joint Japan/World Bank Graduate Scholarship Program	The Program's objective is to foster an international community of trained professionals in the field of economic and social development. On completion of their study programs, the World Bank and the Government of Japan require scholars to return and apply their enhanced knowledge and skills to contribute to the development process in their respective home regions and communities. The JJ/WBGSP scholarship provides annual awards to cover the cost of completing a master's degree or its equivalent or studying towards a doctoral degree. Eligibility includes: be a national of a World Bank member-country; be under 45 years of age (preferably under 40); be in good health; be of good character; hold, at minimum, a bachelor's degree or its equivalent in a development-related field, and have attained the degree with superior grades; have at least two (yet preferably four to five) years of full-time professional experience in a field related to economic development, in the applicant's home country or in another developing country, and usually in public services. The annual value of a scholarship has averaged around $30,000.	March	The World Bank Joint Japan/World Bank Graduate Scholarship Program 1818 H Street, NW Washington, DC 20433 Web: http://web.worldbank.org/WBSITE/EXTERNAL/WBI/EXTWBISFP/EXTJJWBGSP/0,,contentMDK:21597888~menuPK:4527237~pagePK:64168445~piPK:64168309~theSitePK:551644,00.html
Monbukagakusho Scholarship Program Research Studies	The term of this scholarship is 18 months to two years (including 6 months of Japanese language studies). Qualifications include: Applicants must be under 35 years of age as of April 1 of the year of departure, must be university or college graduates, must intend to continue a course of	February	Japan Information Center Olympia Center, Suite 1000 737 N. Michigan Ave. Chicago IL 60611 study previously begun, i.e. shall not begin study in a field new to the applicant, must gain a pledge from a Japanese professor that he or she is willing to supervise the study of the applicant, must learn and receive instruction in the Japanese language. Applicants must choose one of the two following options: 1) 24-month tenure from April of the initial year to March. 2) 18-month tenure from October of the initial year to March.		Phone: (312) 280-0430 Fax: (312) 280-6883 Email: jicchicago@webkddi.com Web: www.chicago.us.emb-japan.go.jp/jic.html

JSPS Postdoctoral Fellowship Program	The JSPS Postdoctoral Fellowship Program for ABD's and recent Ph.D.'s provides promising and highly qualified researchers in the humanities and social sciences with the opportunity to conduct extended research at leading universities and research institutions in Japan. Fellowship terms are for single continuous stays of 3-11 months (short-term) or 12-24 months (long-term). Administered by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS), the program welcomes applications in the social sciences and humanities. Projects need not be explicitly related to the study of Japan but must require work with colleagues and resources in Japan.	N/A	SSRC Japan Program 810 Seventh Avenue, 31 st Floor New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 377-2700 Fax: (212) 377-2727 Email: japan@ssrc.org Web: http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/jsp-s-fellowship/

Korea-related Fellowships

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Academy of Korean Studies Fellowship Program for Korean Studies	Individuals in the humanities and social sciences who are currently engaged in Korea-related teaching and research activities are eligible to apply for the following fellowship programs (the fellowship is not open to Korean nationals except those with permanent resident status in foreign countries): Senior Research Fellowship, Junior Research Fellowship, Pre-doc Fellowship. The period of fellowship may begin any time between January 1 and December 31, and fellows are eligible for a maximum of one year support after arrival. The fellowship provides economy-class round-trip international airfare; free accommodations on campus; monthly stipend (dependent on the type of award); and access to the facilities of the Academy, including the library.	October	Office of International Cooperation The Academy of Korean Studies 50 Unjung-dong, Bundang-gu Seongnam-si, Gyeonggi-do Korea <463-791> Phone: +82-31-709-9843 Fax: +82-31-709-9945 Email: yojh@aks.ac.kr Web: http://intl.aks.ac.kr/english/viewforum.php?f=21
Association for Asian Studies NEAC Korean Studies Grants	The Northeast Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies, in conjunction with the Korea Foundation, offers a grant program in Korean studies designed to assist the research of individual scholars based in North America, to improve the quality of teaching about Korea on both the college and pre-college levels, and to integrate the study of Korea into the major academic disciplines. Grants are available in the following categories: 1. Research Travel - North America, 2. Short-term Research Travel to Korea, 3. Research Assistance, 4. Workshops and Conferences, 5. Projects that Enhance Korean Studies Teaching and 6. Travel Grants for Korean Studies Graduate Students.	October (for fall/winter awards) February (for spring/summer awards)	NEAC Korea Grants Association for Asian Studies 1021 E. Huron St. Ann Arbor, MI. 48104 Phone: (734) 665-2490 Web: http://www.aasianst.org/grants/main.htm
Daesan Foundation	Grants designed to encourage the development of Korean studies	May	The Daesan Foundation

Awards	overseas, encouraging the study of all aspects of Korean literature in particular, thus making Korean culture better known throughout the world. Research categories include: research in Korean studies; scholarships for students majoring in Korean studies; translation, publication, and acquisition of books related to Korean studies; academic symposia on topics related to Korean studies; travel abroad by academics specializing in Korean studies; research and activities in other areas connected with Korean studies.		#907, Kyobo Bldg., 1, Jongno 1-ga, Jongno-gu Seoul, Korea Phone: 82-2-721-3202/3 Fax: 82-2-725-5419 Email: daesan@daesan.or.kr Web: http://daesan.or.kr/eng/
Korea Foundation Fellowship Program	The Foundation provides support for Korean Studies programs of foreign universities and research institutes, fellowship programs and other areas. Fellowships are designed to nurture foreign experts in Korean Studies and to facilitate their research activities. The following fellowships are available: Korean language training, field research, graduate studies, postdoctoral fellowship and advanced research grant. Non-Korean nationals eligible. Masters and doctoral degree candidate options are available.	Varies with award	Korea Foundation Fellowship Program Team Secho P.O. Box 227 Diplomatic Center Building 1376-1, Seocho 2-dong, Seocho-gu Seoul 137-072, Korea Phone: 82-2-3463-5614 Fax: 82-2-3463-6075 Email: fellow@kf.or.kr.scholar@kf.or.kr Web: www.kf.or.kr
Korea Society Fellowships	The Korea Society offers a variety of fellowships: The Korean Language Program (classes for spring term start Jan.); Summer Fellowship in Korean Studies (application deadline Feb.); The Korea Society Language Study Award, 2007–2008 (application deadline Mar.); Fall Fellowship in Korean Studies (application deadline Apr.)	Varies with award	The Korea Society 950 Third Avenue, Eighth Floor New York, New York 10022 Phone: (212) 759-7525 Fax: (212) 759-7530 Web: http://www.koreasociety.org/korean_studies/fellowships/

General Fellowships (Applicable to East Asia) Offered by UW-Madison

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Scott Kloeck-Jenson Fellowships: International Internship Grant	The SKJ International Internship Grants to support doctoral students interested in undertaking practitioner internships on social justice issues. Amounts awarded to each scholar will depend on the proposed destination, but will most likely average $2,500. The program is open to students of any nationality who are enrolled in a doctoral program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and are planning to spend a summer working as an intern in an organization committed to international social justice. Projects which are related to Global Studies themes will receive particular attention. The institution or organization with which the student will work should be located outside of the United States. The student should spend a minimum of 10 weeks as an intern.	February	Steve Smith, Associate Director 301 Ingraham Hall 1155 Observatory Drive University of Wisconsin-Madison Madison, WI 53706 Phone: (608) 262.0646 Email: sksmith@wisc.edu Web: http://global.wisc.edu/skj/

Scott Kloeck-Jenson Fellowships: Pre-Dissertation Travel Grants	International Pre-Dissertation Travel Grants supports summer travel for doctoral students hoping to explore potential field research sites outside the United States. Amounts awarded to each scholar will depend on the proposed destination, but will most likely average $1,000. The program is open to students of any nationality who are enrolled in a doctoral program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and are planning to conduct preliminary dissertation field research. Projects which are related to Global Studies themes will receive particular attention. Students are expected to spend approximately 10 weeks in the field.	February	Steve Smith, Associate Director 301 Ingraham Hall 1155 Observatory Drive University of Wisconsin-Madison Madison WI 53706 Phone: (608) 262-0646 Email: sksmith@wisc.edu Web: http://global.wisc.edu/skj/
--	---	----------	---

General Fellowships (Applicable to East Asia) Offered by Other Institutions

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Visiting Scholars Program: American Academy of Arts and Sciences	The Academy invites postdoctoral scholars and junior faculty to apply for research fellowships. Fellowships are offered in the areas of science, scholarship, business, public affairs and the arts. The Academy is interested in work that explores the impact of science and technological advances during the past 225 years on American institutions, global security, international relations, the humanities and culture, and education. Stipend for postdoctoral scholar is $35,000 for an academic year; junior faculty is awarded up to $50,000. Scholars will receive office space and computer services at the academy and library privileges in cooperation with Harvard University.	October	Visiting Scholars Program American Academy of Arts and Sciences 136 Irving Street Cambridge, MA 02138 Phone: (617)576-5000 Fax: (617) 576-5050 E-mail: membership@amacad.org Web: http://www.amacad.org/vsp/programs.aspx
American Association of University Women: International Fellowship	International Fellowships are awarded for full-time study or research to women who are not United States citizens or permanent residents. Both graduate and postgraduate studies at accredited institutions are supported. The Foundation will award 57 fellowships for the academic year. Six of these awards are available to members of International Federation of University Women affiliate organizations. These fellowship recipients may study in any country other than their own. The Foundation also awards several annual Home Country Project Grants ($5,000 to $7,000 each) to women who received AAUW Educational Foundation International Fellowships between 2001 and 2005. These grants support community-based projects designed to improve the lives of women and girls in the fellow's home country.	December	AAUW Educational Foundation International Fellowships PO Box 4030 Iowa City, IA 52243-4030 Phone: (319) 337-1716 ext. 60 Email: aauw@act.org Web: http://www.aauw.org/fga/fellowships_grants/international.cfm
Center for International Security And Cooperation: Freeman Spogli Institute for	CISAC supports a social science fellowship program for pre-doctoral and postdoctoral scholars and professionals, which provides opportunities for concentrated study in a multidisciplinary environment. Visiting fellows spend the academic year at Stanford University	February	Michelle L. Gellner CISAC Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies Stanford University

International Studies (CISAC)	completing their projects, participating in seminars, and interacting with each other and the resident faculty and research staff. The Center facilities on the Stanford campus include offices, a conference room, and a specialized library. Fellows also have access to other Stanford libraries. Eligibility: Fellowships are available to Ph.D. candidates who have made substantial progress toward the completion of their dissertation and to scholars with Ph.D. or equivalent degrees from the United States and abroad. The Center invites applications from a variety of disciplines. The Center also seeks applications from military officers or civilian members of the United States government, members of military or diplomatic services from other countries, and journalists interested in arms control and international security issues. The value of each fellowship award is determined by the applicant's graduate education and background. Stipends, with health insurance, for the nine-month academic year will be $20,000 for pre-doctoral fellows. Postdoctoral stipends, with health insurance, start at $35,000 and are commensurate with experience.		Encina Hall, C223 616 Serra Street Stanford, CA 94305-6165 Phone: (650) 723-9626 Fax: (650) 723-0089 Email: mgellner@stanford.edu Web: http://cisac.stanford.edu/fellowships/predoctoral_and_postdoctoral_fellowships_in_international_security/
Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship	Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships are designed to encourage original and significant study of ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences. In addition to topics in religious studies or in ethics (philosophical or religious), dissertations might consider the ethical implications of foreign policy, the values influencing political decisions, the moral codes of other cultures, and religious or ethical issues reflected in history or literature. Fellows will receive $18,500 for 12 months of full-time dissertation writing. Approximately 28 non-renewable fellowships will be awarded from among more than 400 applications. Graduate schools will be asked to waive tuition for Newcombe Fellows.	November	The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation P.O. Box 5281, CWN Department Princeton, NJ 08543 Phone: (609) 452-7007 or 1-800-899-9963 Fax: (609) 452-7828 E-mail: charlotte@woodrow.org Web: http://www.woodrow.org/newcombe/
Columbia University Society of Fellows in the Humanities	Newly appointed fellows must have received a Ph.D. Research on project that is the focus of the application, teaching duties in the Core Curriculum, attendance at Society of Fellows lectures and events and Core Curriculum training meetings, active participation in the intellectual life of the Society. Amount: $52,000 plus full fringe benefits. Each fellow is eligible for an additional $3,000 in research aid. One year appointment at a rank equivalent to that of lecturer. The appointment may be renewed for a second year. As Mellon Fellows, successful candidates teach a section of Columbia University's famous core courses: Contemporary Civilization, Literature, Music, or Art Humanities, Asian Civilizations or Humanities. In their second year, Mellon fellows may teach an additional one-semester course on a topic of their choice.	October	The Society of Fellows in the Humanities Columbia University, Heyman Center Mail Code 5700 2960 Broadway New York, NY 10027 Phone: (212) 854-4631 Fax: (212) 854-4069 Email: sof-fellows@columbia.edu Web: http://www.columbia.edu/cu/societyoffellows/fellowship.html
Fulbright –IIE Scholarship	These awards are for pre-doctoral graduate study and research abroad in academic fields and for professional training in the creative and	August	The Institute of International Education (IIE) Midwest Branch-155 N. Wacker Drive,

For Graduate Study & Undergrad Research Abroad	performing arts. Eligibility limited to US citizens. Graduating seniors and graduate students are encouraged to apply. Applications are made through the UW-Madison International Institute Fellowships Office. Selection is based on the academic or professional record of the applicant, the feasibility of the proposed research/study plan, letters of recommendation, the applicant's language preparation, and personal suitability.		Suite 714 Chicago, IL 60606 Phone: (312) 346-0026 Fax: (312) 346-2574 Web: http://www.iie.org/en/Programs/Fulbright-US-Scholar-Program UW-Madison Contact: Dr. Erin Crawley, Fellowships Officer Phone: (608) 262-9632 E-mail: fellow@intl-institute.wisc.edu
Jacob K. Javits Fellowship Program, Department of Education	The Jacob K. Javits Fellowship Program provides financial assistance to students of superior ability, as demonstrated by their achievements and exceptional promise, to undertake study at the doctoral and Masters of Fine Arts (MFA) level in selected fields of the arts, humanities, and social sciences. Eligible fields of study include area studies. Awards are made for one year, renewable to a maximum of four years. The award consists of two parts: a stipend to the Fellow for a 12-month period for personal expenses (based on need), and an institutional payment to be accepted by the institution on behalf of the Fellow in lieu of all tuition and fees.	September	Gary Thomas or Carmen Gordon Jacob K. Javits Fellowship Program U.S. Department of Education 19190 K St., NW, 6th Floor Washington, DC 20006-8524 Phone: (202) 502-7542 E-mail: ope_javits_program@ed.gov Web: http://www2.ed.gov/programs/jacobjavits/index.html
Jennings Randolph Program: Senior Fellowship and Peace Scholar Awards	The Jennings Randolph Program for International Peace awards Senior Fellowships to enable outstanding scholars, policymakers, journalists, and other professionals from around the world to conduct research at the U.S. Institute of Peace in Washington on issues concerning international conflict and peace. The Institute funds projects related to preventive diplomacy, ethnic and regional conflicts, peacekeeping and peace operations, peace settlements, post-conflict reconstruction and reconciliation, democratization and the rule of law, cross-cultural negotiations, U.S. foreign policy in the 21st century, and related topics. The fellowship award includes a stipend based on the fellow's previous year's salary and professional standing, up to a maximum of $80,000 for a ten-month fellowship. Fellows are also provided partial reimbursement of health insurance premiums; an office with a computer and voicemail; and the services of a part-time research assistant. The competition is open to citizens of all nations. Women and members of minorities are especially encouraged to apply.	September	United States Institute of Peace 1200 17th Street NW Washington, DC 20036 Phone: (202) 457-1700 Fax: (202) 429-6063 Web: http://www.usip.org/fellows/index.html

Social Science Research Council (SSRC) International Dissertation Field Research Fellowships	These fellowships support humanists and social scientists conducting dissertation field research in all areas and regions of the world. The program is open to full-time graduate students in the humanities and the social sciences enrolled in doctoral programs in the United States. The program invites proposals for field research on all areas or regions of the world, as well as for research that is comparative, cross-regional, and/or cross-cultural. Applicants should provide evidence of having attained an appropriate level of training and skill to undertake the proposed field research, including evidence of a degree of language fluency adequate to complete the project. Applications should exhibit grounding in the methods and theories of a particular discipline or sub-discipline, but also must be of demonstrable cross-disciplinary interest. Applicants must have completed all Ph.D. requirements except for the field-work component by the time the fellowship begins. Standard fellowships will provide support for 9 to 12 months in the field, plus travel expenses, but they will rarely exceed $20,000. Applications should be requested from SSRC well before the deadline.	N/A	International Dissertation Field Research Fellowship Program (IDRF) Social Science Research Council 810 Seventh Avenue New York, NY 10019 Phone: (212) 377-2700 Fax: (212) 377-2727 Email: idrf@ssrc.org Web: www.ssrc.org
---	---	-----	---

Travel Grants for East Asian Library Access

Name	Summary & Eligibility (see website listed for more details)	Application Deadline	Contact Info
Harvard-Yenching Library, Harvard University Travel Grant Program	Fourteen grants of $400 each are available, four each in Chinese and Korean studies, and six in Japanese studies. Grants will be awarded on a merit basis to faculty members and graduate students engaged in doing dissertation research. Applications should include a letter, brief description of the research topic and an estimated budget.	December	James K. M. Cheng, Librarian Harvard-Yenching Library 2 Divinity Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138. Fax: (617) 496-6008. Email: jkcheng@fas.harvard.edu Web: http://hcl.harvard.edu/libraries/harvard-yenching/travel_grant_program.html
University of Michigan Asia Library Travel Grants	Grants up to $500 for Japan scholars at other institutions who wish to utilize the collection at the University of Michigan Asia Library. Interested scholars should submit a brief statement to the Center for Japanese Studies describing their research and need to use the Asia Library collection. Scholars should also present a current curriculum vita and proposed travel dates.	May	Asia Library Travel Grants University of Michigan Center for Japanese Studies, Suite 3603 1080 S. University Ave. Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1106 Email: umcjs@umich.edu Web: http://www.ii.umich.edu/ccs/resources/asialibrary